Here are some of the reasons You're not as successful as you should be.

- Laziness: I don't think there is an easy way to put this. I have to assume that you are lazy. Every single successful person works their boots off to get where they are. It's ok to be lazy. Just admit it. But don't whine about not being rich and successful, ok ?
- Entitlement: Only a few people in the world are part of the lucky sperm club. You and Me? We gotta work to get what we want. Quit thinking you are owed something. You're not. Get to work.
- Fear: You are afraid, plain and simple. Afraid of looking silly. Afraid of what your friend and family say. Afraid of everything. Look, you're either going to stop being afraid, or you're not. Nobody can convince you to stop. Imagine though... what awaits you when you stop with the fear excuses.
- Negativity: You may not realize it, but the people you associate with might be negative. They could be soul-sucking beings who don't want anyone to be successful. Get rid of them, now! Surround yourself with successful people. People you want to be like.
- Stop Thinking: How much do you want to bet you have paralysis by analysis? You think way too much about what you could or should do. Doers get what they want, and everyone else gets what they get. Stop analyzing and start doing.
- No Goals: You Plan nothing. You believe that someday, somehow everything you always wanted will just magically happen. So you "play it by ear" and wait. You need goals to shoot for. Otherwise you are just treading water.
- "THEY": There's no 'THEY'. There is no secret group of people that control your success or failure. You've made that up to make you feel better about yourself. The truth is you, and you alone, control your success in life/business and everything. It's easy to blame "them" though isn't it?? Weak.
- No X Factor: You can't do it because you're not pretty enough. Or don't have a strong personality? You don't have the "X" Factor? Wow what an unbelievable lame excuse. The truth is even jerks, idiots and boring people can be just as successful and anybody else. Your problem is you don't believe it yet.
- Waste Time: You're a classic time-waster. You spend hours and hours everyday working on not-working. You do things that aren't productive. How you are ever going to get anything done, or reach any goal if you keep wasting time? You're not. So you might as well give up now if you're going to keep this path.

- Don't Believe: You never believed that it's impossible. Society taught you that only a few "exceptional" people get what they want. Everyone else should just settle. If you really want to believe that, go ahead. The rest of us will be at the front of the line because we believe.
